

Marquita and Josette from Wedding Bells were inspired by each girl's unique look and created a different style for each. Angel is wearing a fitted champagne coloured gown by a Spanish designer made of lace and satin. The lacy ruffles accentuate the fishtail at the bottom of the dress and the off-the-shoulder neckline is also very flattering.

Miriam is wearing a gown by an American designer, also champagne coloured. The strapless bodice is covered with sequins and has detachable sleeves, while the A-line taffeta ruched skirt has an underlay of lace.

PHOTOS BY KEVIN CASHA