THE EVENT CATERERS

Lattughi, The Event Caterers, are continuously trusted to provide a service at events that don't come around that often. That is why it pays to use event caterers with nearly half a century's worth of experience in the industry, and a passion for reliability and quality. That's where we come in.

We understand that, in order to deliver a premium service, we have to set ourselves the highest of standards to live by. They are standards that we are familiar with, having been perfected in some of Europe's most renowned restaurants and hotels. That's not to say we aren't flexible. With various menus and an infinite number of venues to choose from, it is our record for delivering exemplary events, every time, that has made us Lattughi, The Event Caterers.

ANDREA LATTUGHI

When Andrea Lattughi graduated from Italy's first hospitality school, the prestigious Aurelio Saffi in Florence, he could not have known that one day he would own and run Malta's premium event caterers. His remarkable CV boasts experience in Venice, Switzerland, London and Florence, with stints at the world famous Ritz in Paris, and Villa Madama, the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Rome. Andrea has never worked for an institution that does not hold the internationally recognised AA 5 stars.

Why is this important for you? It means that whenever you enlist Lattughi to cater for your wedding, lunch or corporate event, you are calling on 46 years of experience gained in some of Europe's finest centres of hospitality. It is the only way we can fulfil our commitment to quality, every time.

FOOD

Being Italian is as much a part of our personality as our commitment to quality and reliability. In our cuisine we wanted to retain these values, and in doing so we believe that we have produced a wonderfully diverse range of traditional Italian recipes served in modern, chic and innovative ways.

However, it is the taste of the food we prepare that we specifically pride ourselves on. Our professional kitchen team has worked hard to create every item on our menus, and deliver them to a standard that befits the Lattughi brand.

SERVICE

We know how much an event means to each of our customers, which is why we place so much importance on not only being flexible and easy to work with, but also on being honest about the service we provide.

We are a core team of around ten professionals specially chosen to represent our brand. We can cater for just about any event, for a range of varying clients and budgets. We provide personal and in-house stylised catering, specifically designed to meet your every requirement, from canapés, to drinks, to full event dinners. We'll provide everything you need, and even take care of the cleaning after sale service. It's a tried and tested formula.

EVENTS

We've worked at a range of events, both in Malta and abroad, for a variety of functions and businesses, both private and public. We have tested ourselves at small private drinks parties, and large Parliamentary galas, and we are capable in delivering our sterling service in English, French Italian and Spanish language. Everything we do is designed to fit your specific needs, and your specific event.

From foreign weddings to local lunches, Lattughi are committed to delivering you perfect hospitality, every time.

VENUES

Lattughi are unique in that we offer our clients an infinite number of venues to choose from. How?

Our in-house, personalised service is designed to operate in a range of spaces, from personal home-events, to large scale weddings and functions. We have a regular portfolio of impressive venues that we suggest to our clients, from impressive Pallazzos to chic night spots, but it is our flexibility that really sets us apart from our competition. Whatever your chosen venue, Lattughi are able to bring your event to life.

OUR PROMISE

We realise that every event we cater for represents an important milestone for our clients. It might be a daughter's wedding, or an important business function. Whatever it is, your day deserves a reliable, premium service; otherwise you would not have chosen Lattughi.

That is why we make a commitment to our customers. We pledge to provide an exemplary service, with high quality cuisine, at every event we are asked to cater for. We pledge to do this no matter your chosen venue, or your chosen language. We can promise this because we aren't just any event caterers. We are Lattughi, we are The Event Caterers.
